LONDON MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY
PRIZE REGULATIONS: SENIOR BERWICK PRIZE

I.   GENERAL

1.   In accordance with a wish expressed by the late Professor William Edward Hodgson Berwick, Sc.D. (Member of the Society 1914-1944, Council 1925-1929, Vice-President 1929) and out of funds provided by Mrs. Berwick, the London Mathematical Society has instituted the award of a Senior Berwick Prize to the author(s) of a definite piece of research of the highest quality that is actually published by the Society..

2.   The award of the Senior Berwick Prize shall be considered biennially by the Council of the Society, in even numbered years.

3.   No person shall be awarded the Senior Berwick Prize more than once, either as an individual or joint award, although an individual or joint Senior Berwick Prize may be awarded to a person who has previously received a Berwick Prize (either as an individual or joint award).

4.   The Prize in year x shall be awarded in respect of a definite piece of mathematical research actually published by the Society in any of the following eligible journals:

- Bulletin of the London Mathematical Society,
- Journal of the London Mathematical Society,
- Proceedings of the London Mathematical Society,
- Transactions of the London Mathematical Society
- Journal of Topology,
- Nonlinearity,
- Journal of Computation & Mathematics,
- Lecture Notes,
- LMS Monographs.

Please note that this list is restricted to those journals over which the London Mathematical Society has editorial control. However, the list will be subject to an annual review.

5.   To qualify for the Prize in year x, the definite piece of mathematical research must have been published in any of the eligible journals in the period from 1st January, year $x – 8$, until 31st December, year $x –1$.

6.   In cases where the Prize is to be awarded to more than one author, all certificates shall bear the names of all authors and the monetary award shall be split equally amongst all winners.

7.   Any amendment to these Regulations for the award of the Prize must be made at a regular meeting of Council at which the proposed amendment must receive the support of an absolute majority of those present at the meeting, whether voting or not, in order to take effect.
